Subject's learning outcomes

Code	Outcomes in terms of	Effects	Examination methods
Knowledge - Student knows and understands:
W1	The lecture allows students to learn about specific doctrines of English law, which, as it turns out in practice, are applied by Polish courts. Of particular importance is the building of students' competence in the area of UK law, in view of the significant migration of Polish citizens to this country and the resulting gradual increase in the number of cases with a foreign (British) element before Polish courts. The agenda of the lecture takes into account the contemporary challenges facing lawyers in the third decade of the 21st century: the United Kingdom leaving the structures of the European Union and the impact of the so-called Brexit on the application of law in Poland. A student who has attended the lecture and passed the exam knows the differences in the functioning of the common law and equity law systems, as well as the structure of private law in the law under discussion.	PRA_K3_W01, PRA_K3_W02, PRA_K3_W03, PRA_K3_W05, PRA_K3_W06, PRA_K3_W07	written exam
Skills - Student can:
U1	Participation in the lecture strengthens students' linguistic competence in the area of legal English, which is a necessary part of the education of a modern European lawyer. A student who has attended the lecture and passed the exam is able to describe - using English language - the basic concepts of private law as applied in England and Wales. He/she is able to search for information taking into account the specifics of the system of sources and the structure of this law.	PRA_K3_U03, PRA_K3_U04, PRA_K3_U08	written exam
Social competences - Student is ready to:
K1	The lecture will help students to function in the international business (internationalization), through the development of linguistic competence and through knowledge of foreign legal systems. A student who has attended the lecture and passed the exam will find it easier to provide legal assistance to foreign entities. Using the English language he/she will be able to point out to a party operating in a foreign language - legal remedies available to him in Polish law.	PRA_K3_K01	written exam

1.	The lecture will be conducted for 10 hours (5 meetings of 2 hours each). The subject of the individual meetings will be selected doctrines of English law with which a Polish court applying foreign law in civil proceedings may have to deal. The selection of issues for the seminar is based on the experience of the lecturer as an expert appointed by Polish courts to deal with private law of common law jurisdictions. Thanks to this practice, he has knowledge of what types of cases with an English or American element come before Polish courts. Topics of individual meetings: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. sources of law in the UK (precedent law versus statute law and equity law versus common; Brexit issues; legal research; legal reasoning). 2. jurisdictional clauses (subjective and objective scope, third parties, assignment) 3. domicil of individuals (using the "Polish" case of Cyganik v. Agulian (2006) EWCA Civ 129 as an example). 4. law of succession (executorship, succession, liability for debts, form of a will, rights of dependents) 5. corporate law (Companies Act 2006 c. 46 and Insolvency Act 1986 c. 45) 	W1, U1, K1
